

Welcome to the Walled Garden cafe nestled on the site of a 19th century greenhouse in the heart of the garden here at Gordon Castle. Originally the village of Fochabers was situated here on the site of Walled Garden until it was moved to its current location in 1777 by the then Duke of Gordon.

Whether you fancy a coffee, home-made scone, cake or artisan lunches you can watch the garden grow from our restaurants floor to ceiling windows.

All of our dishes are freshly prepared and cooked to order, using the very best of the seasonal produce from the Walled Garden (so fresh that you may see some being picked from our Garden before they reach your plate) and the finest ingredients from local suppliers, whenever possible, to our uncompromising standards of taste, quality and presentation. This can mean that during busy periods there may be occasions when your meal may take longer to arrive. We may also sometimes run out of a menu item, it is at these times we thank you, in advance for your understanding and co-operations.
